

Alan Burnett 1908-1975

Indianapolis [IN] "Star", January 16, 1975.

Alan Burnett Dies: Services Tuesday

Services for Alan Burnett, 63, 863 Indigo Way, a coordinator at the Indianapolis Skills Center, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in St. John's Episcopal Church at Crawfordsville. Burial will be private.

He died Tuesday in Methodist Hospital.

He was graduated from Purdue University and was former owner of the Burnett Lumber Company at Crawfordsville. He was born at Kansas City, Kan., and was a former Crawfordsville resident. He lived here 10 years.

He was a World War II veteran and was a member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Burnett of Indianapolis, and a son, David Burnett, of San Diego, Calif.