

Helen Ripley Eustis 1871-1923

Boston Daily "Globe" Vineyard Haven, May 3, 1923 Helen Eustis, wife of George D Eustis, formerly of Brookline and son of the late Dean Eustis of the Lawrence Scientific School, died today at the Eustis home at Chilmark. Mrs Eustis died after an illness of several weeks.

She was an artist, born on the Vineyard, and was a daughter of the late Samuel E A Ripley of Oak Bluffs. Mr Ripley was for 50 years or more in the employ of the New Bedford, Martha's Vineyard & Nantucket Steamship Company. Mrs Eustis is survived by her husband and her mother, Mrs Emma G Ripley of Brookline.