From: The Monroe Commercial Thursday, June 28, 1866 page 2, column 3

DIED-On the 14th inst., MRS. LAVIAH ADAMS, relict of the late Orry Adams, Esq. formerly of Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. ADAMS had led a long life of usefulness and self-sacrifice, a mother to the motherless, and a friend to the needy. Through a long and wearisome pilgrimage of 76 years, and for weeks of agonizing suffering, her faith and trust grew firmer, and she sweetly fell asleep murmuring as in a pleasant dream,

"Why don't we start."
