

Lewis Frank Berry 1891-1916

Mattoon [IL] "Journal-Gazette", abt 1916.

FRANK BERRY DIES IN ST. LOUIS SANITARIUM

Mattoon Young Man Passes Away after Illness of Four Years ... Burial to Be Here

Frank Berry, son of Mrs. Margaret Berry, passed away Thursday afternoon in the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium in St. Louis, where he had been a patient for four years. He was afflicted with tuberculosis of the spine. His condition had been serious for some time.

The body will be brought to this Saturday for burial in Dodge Grove cemetery. The funeral party will reach this city either at 11:35 or 3:03 o'clock and will be taken to the home of an aunt, Mrs. S.R. Connelly, 1108 Champaign Ave., from where the funeral services will be conducted at two o'clock Sunday afternoon. The rites will be conducted by Rev. R.F. McDaniel.

Mr. Berry was about twenty-five year of age and had passed his life in this city until his removal to St. Louis to enter the sanitarium. He is survived by a young wife and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Berry, who made her home in St. Louis, and two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Jones of Kokomo, Ind., and Miss Margaret Berry of Chicago. B.N. Berry of this city is a grandfather of the young man.