

Lizzie Waite Mann 1858-1900

Lyons [NE] "Sun", 27 Dec 1900. Come to Her Eternal Home DIED -- Lizzie, wife of W.A. Mann, Wednesday, Dec. 19, 1900, of pnewumonia, aged 42 years

Mrs.Mann was sick only two weeks when death came in all its horror and struck one of the noblest of women and carried her home to her God. She leaves a husband and two daughters, Millie and Hazel, to mourn her loss.

A loving wife and a kind mother was sister Mann and her kindly, loving spirit will be missed in more places than her beautiful home. Father and sisters will mourn her, as well as many sympathizing friends who knew her only to respect and honor her.

Rev. J.W. Millar presided over the ceremony until they reached the Lyons cemetery when the ladies of the Degree of Honor took charge. their ritualistic work was very pretty, and the sisters of the lodge laid sister Lizzie Mann to rest, that last, long rest, bade her farewell, farewell forever
