MONROE PULLEN DIES FROM TUBERCULOSIS

Young Man Passes Away at Home of Grandfather Saturday Evening
After Several Weeks' Illness

Monroe Pullen died on Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock at the home of his grandfather, B.N. Berry, 1121 Wabash avenue, after an illness lasting about six weeks. Death was attributed to tuberculosis and other complications and was rather sudden, as the young man had been sitting up and going around until Saturday afternoon, when he was seized with sinking spells.

The funeral services were held this afternoon from the house at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. F. Oliver, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Burial was made in Dodge Grove cemetery.

Monroe Pullen, was eighteen years old, and had lived all his life in this city. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pullen. For some time he was employed in the Big Four shops in this city until his last illness.

Besides the parents he is survived by one sister, Miss Lucille Pullen and one brother, Miller Pullen, the latter of Peoria.
